CARMENERE 2012

Carmenere 85% and Cabernet Sauvignon 15%

TASTING NOTES

It has a well-defined bouquet with lifted black fruit, and a very attractive roasted pepper, licorice and a touch of smoke flavors. The palate is medium-bodied with a smooth and silky texture, well-balanced with chocolate-covered red fruit and black pepper. Nice and seductive finish.

Aging: 12 months in French oak barrels

Limited Production: 41.754 bottles

Alc. 14.5% Vol.

PARCELA # 7 2011

Bordeaux Blend

Cab. S. 40%, Petit Verdot 31%, Merlot 16% and Cab. Franc 13%

TASTING NOTES

It has a subtle red currant and redberry-scented bouquet with touches of sous bois, hazelnut and aromatic herbs that are very attractive. The palate is medium-bodied with supple tannins and pure red berry fruit mixed with black pepper, sage and cured meats. It is very well-balanced and fresh, the finish supple and in tune with the oak

Aging: 12 months in French oak barrels

Limited Production: 72.534 bottles

Alc. 14.5% Vol.

CARABANTES 2011

Syrah 100%

TASTING NOTES

The 2011 Carabantes Syrah is from a slightly warmer zone in Aconcagua, which shows in the strong balsamic aromas, with notes of eucalyptus and bay leaf intermixed with notes of tapenade and a touch of smoked bacon. The palate reveals supple tannins, clean acidity and, again, balsamic flavors and very good length. A delicious Syrah. Drink now - 2017.

Luis Gutierrez - June 2014. Robert Parker's publication

Aging: 18 months in French oak barrels

Limited Production: 11.250 bottles

Alc. 14.5% Vol.

MONTELIG 2009

Original Bordeaux Blend

Cabernet Sauvignon 40%, Carmenere 30% and Petit Verdot 30%

TASTING NOTES

It is a very expressive wine, intense and complex that reminds some red berries, licorice, inky and dusty, resembling a bordeaux style.

On the palate is rich, full bodied, deep with a fine structure with a very long aftertaste.

Aging: 24 months in new French oak barrels

Limited Production: 9.320 bottles

Alc. 14.5% Vol.

Viña von Siebenthal

TOKNAR 2008

Petit Verdot 100%

TASTING NOTES

It is a dark-colored wine with an equally dark nose of graphite, peat, shoe polish, cassis, blackberries, and black pepper. The oak is really imperceptible with such intensity of fruit. The palate is full-bodied, tight, powerful and concentrated, with high acidity and an even higher concentration of tannins. Mauro Von Siebenthal talks about an extreme, borderline wine. It is indeed a bodybuilder of a wine, which should be capable of living a long life in bottle. If you want to drink it now, try to find a mammoth chop. Drink 2016 - 2026.

Luis Gutierrez - June 2014. Robert Parker's publication

Aging: 26 months in French oak barrels

Limited Production: 3.400 bottles

Alc. 14.5% Vol.

- > First vintage was in 2007. Rated 97 points by Robert Parker
- > Cepage: Carménère 90% and Petit Verdot 10%
 - > Vintage 2007 had a total production of 1492 bottles.
This number commemorates the discovery of the continent of America
- > Vintage 2008 was destroyed during Chile's earthquake on Feb. 27, 2010

Viña von Siebenthal

TATAY DE CRISTOBAL 2010

Carmenere 90% and Petit Verdot 10%

TASTING NOTES

A dark-colored, concentrated version of Carmenere, it delivers plenty of roasted notes and organic aromas of peated malt, licorice, shoe polish, leather, ink, tempera paint, and a slightly animal note with a core of black fruit. The texture is very velvety with voluptuous tannins, pungent, very long flavors and lowish acidity. It is a powerful, big, Carmenere of strong personality.

Drink 2015 - 2020

Luis Gutierrez - June 2014. Robert Parker's publication

Aging: 24 months in new French oak barrels

Limited Production: 3.500 bottles

Alc. 14.5% Vol.
